

2012 WEST COAST CHALLENGE

St. Pete/Clearwater, Florida

Be a part of the largest amateur billiards competition held in Florida!

Billiards is one of the fastest growing sports world-wide and competitive billiards offers excitement for men, women and children of all ages and walks of life.

Every year our event continues to gain recognition through the caliber of play and outstanding reputation of the event and co-founders. Each year, the West Coast Challenge hosts play from recognized (adult AND junior) international amateur champions, state champions and local/regional champions.

Due to the continued growth of the tournament we are pursuing financial supporters for this huge event to help cover the growing administrative costs and overhead, as well as increase the player's prize funds. By becoming a part of this event it will, in turn, provide you/your company inexpensive advertising and positive exposure to our participants, spectators and fellow sponsors.

The levels of sponsorship we are pursuing are as follows:

$5,000 Platinum Sponsor will receive: "Platinum Sponsor" recognition on Event Wear, all tournament media, single Large Banner display in the playing arena and pool table signage for the duration of the event and Saturday night's stay at tournament host site.

$1,500 Gold Sponsor will receive: "Gold Sponsor" recognition in all tournament media and single large banner display in the playing arena and pool table signage for the duration of the event.

$500.00 Silver Sponsor will receive: "Silver Sponsor" recognition in all tournament media and small banner display in the playing arena for the duration of the event.

$250.00 Bronze Sponsor will receive: Small banner display and pool table signage for the duration of the event.

$100.00 Sponsor will receive: Pool table sign advertisement for the duration of the event.
